DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER*

THIS MIGHT HURT

Saturday, October 26

9:30 AM - 1:00 PM

Folsom Hall

7667 Folsom Blvd

Sacramento, California 95826

Join Kent Bassett, the co-director of This Might Hurt for a documentary screening and interactive talk about chronic pain patients entering a new medical program focused on Pain Reprocessing Therapy. Attendees will learn about this new paradigm for diagnosis and treatment, found to be effective in several randomized trials, and listed as a “best practice” by the HHS task force.

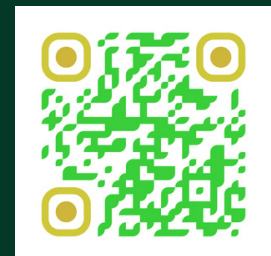

*This event is complimentary to students, staff, faculty, & community members, and is made possible by the generous contributions of our CHPPR supporters.
