FACULTY AND STAFF

Section 1: Faculty and Staff

This section includes faculty and staff headcount and profiles. The data are generated on October 1 each year.

All original data in this section was provided by the offices of Human Resources and Information Technology.

Please note that some of the data of this section as well as following sections may have been revised from previous years as the result of a special effort to improve the data quality.

NEW STUDENTS

Section 2: New Students

This section displays the data of applicants, new student profiles and their distribution among colleges. Also included is a map showing all applicants (new and re-applied) by California County.

Enrollment data in sections 2-5, were collected at Census Date—four weeks after the first day of instruction each semester. They are the “official” numbers for State and Federal reporting.

Ethnic headcounts in this section, and all other sections may differ from those reported before 2014. The Fact Book now uses new ERSR (Race/Ethnicity) data, collected since 2009, to complete the historical record.

TEACHING AND LEARNING

Section 4: Teaching and Learning

This section includes data for class size, faculty teaching assignment, student course load, Full-time Equivalent Students, Full-time Equivalent Faculty and student-faculty ratio.

Average class sizes and student-faculty ratios are important criteria used by many published college guides for measuring the quality of teaching and learning. In particular, they are used by US News and World Report for its college rankings.

¹ Full-Time Equivalent Students is the sum of Student Credit Units (SCU) divided by 15. Starting fall 2006, FTES is SCU/12 for Classified Graduate Students plus SCU/15 for all other students. (Unclassified Graduate Students include post baccalaureates pursuing a second bachelor's degree, or otherwise not admitted to a graduate degree, or credential program students; these students are combined with undergraduates when computing FTES.) For example, HRS 122 in spring 2007 was a 3-credit class with 47 undergraduate students and 1 classified graduate student enrolled. Thus, FTES is computed as $(47*3)/15 + (1*3)/12 = 9.4 + 0.25 = 9.65$

² Full-time Equivalent Faculty: Each full-time (workload of 15 weighted teaching units) permanent faculty member is defined as 1.0 FTEF, even though he/she teaches only nine months a year. The FTEF for a part-time faculty member is defined as workload divided by 15. For example, a part-time faculty member teaching two three-unit classes is counted as $6/15 = 0.4$ FTEF.

³ Student-Faculty Ratio is FTES divided by FTEF

¹ WTU represents the total weighted teaching workload due to sections taught (all instructional modes) as well as all assigned time activity.

² Student Credit Unit (SCU) identifies the total number of earned course credit units for all students enrolled in a given section. For example, HRS 122 in spring 2007 was a 3-unit class with 48 students enrolled. Thus, SCU is computed as 48*3=144.

For non-supervision segment (CS Number 01 thru 21), WTU is computed as the product of Course Credit Units and a "K factor" obtained as follows:

CS Number	K factor	CS Number	K factor
01 thru 04 (lecture)	1.0	16, 17 (lab)	2.0
05 thru 06 (seminar)	1.0	18 (activity)	6.0
07 thru 14 (activity)	1.3	19 thru 21 (activity)	3.0
15 (lab)	1.5

For a "supervision" resource segment (CS Number 23, 24, 25, 36, & 48), WTU is computed as enrollment times an adjusting factor obtained as follows:

CS Number	Adjusting Factor	CS Number	Adjusting Factor
23	1.00	36	0.33
24	0.67	48	0.25
25	0.50	77-78	0.00

DEGREES AWARDED

Section 6: Degrees Awarded

This section includes time to degree, median degree units, and degree count by college, by gender, and by ethnicity.

The degree counts include Bachelor's, Second Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctorate Degrees. All data are based on degree census files.

Graduating year begins in summer session, fall semester and ends in spring semester

RETENTION AND GRADUATION

Section 7: Retention and Graduation

This section shows the retention rates and graduation rates breakdown by ethnic group by college. It also includes two student flow charts for the native freshmen cohort and transfer cohort who have had the most recent 6-year or 4-year graduation rates.

Progression Rate refers to the proportion of a cohort who progressed to higher class levels and who left the university in the beginning of each year.

Retention Rate refers to the proportion of a cohort who continued on for a specified number of years, including those who may have graduated during that period. Graduation Rate refers to the proportion of a cohort who earned a degree in a specified number of years.

*The graduation rate is a calculation of the sum of the number of students who graduated within 6 or 4 years divided by the number of students who originally entered at the same fall semester. College cohorts are based on the initial majors that students declared during the first semester at college. Therefore, students who graduated from a college other than the one they initially declared are still credited to their initial college selection.

Note: Programs within the College of Engineering and Computer Sciences require an average of 133 units for a Bachelor's degree, which is higher than the unit requirement of most other programs (on average, most require 120 units). Subsequently, the graduation rate of this college is not comparable with that of other colleges. Excludes Special Programs and Undeclared.

1. This rate is calculated by dividing the number of students who graduated from their initial colleges by the number of students in the original cohort.

2. This rate is calculated by dividing the number of students who graduated from their initial major plus inflow students by the number of students in the adjusted cohort (original cohort plus inflow students minus outflow students). This is the actual graduation rate for each college.

3. This rate is calculated by dividing the number of students who graduated from their initial colleges plus outflow students by the number of students in the original cohort. This is the official graduate rate for each college.

Section 8: Alumni

This section includes a table and three maps showing the distribution of all living alumni in California counties, in each state, and across the world.

All data was provided by University Advancement. The count is generated in the summer of each year.
