

Congratulations to LiHong and Rasanjeet for receiving the 2023-2024 Fashion Scholarship!

LiHong Chen, an academically accomplished student, stands as one of the two distinguished recipients of the coveted Apparel Marketing and Design Scholarship this year. Originating from China, LiHong brings to her studies a distinguished academic background, having previously obtained a degree in mathematics. Her transition into the realm of fashion epitomizes exploration, tenacity and work the fashion sustainable advocacy coupled with her intellectual versatility and resolute pursuit of scholarly endeavors. Demonstrating a fervent dedication to the advancement of fashion practices, LiHong ardently engages in scholarly research and endeavors. Her steadfast commitment to academic excellence, her aspiration to pursue graduate studies, underscores her profound dedication to effecting substantive change within the fashion industry on a global scale.

of the two
Scholarship
college
epitomizes
exploration,
tenacity and
work
the fashion
sustainable
advocacy
coupled with

Rasanjeet Singh, an exceptional student within the realm of fashion merchandising, epitomizes a rich tapestry of cultural diversity and unwavering dedication to academic professional pursuits. Born into a Punjabi family in Italy and immigrating to the United States, Rasanjeet adeptly navigates across cultural boundaries, fluently conversing in three languages. Her profound love for fashion serves as a guiding beacon, propelling her into roles of significance within the industry. Rasanjeet actively contributes to the fashion landscape, balancing her responsibilities as a designer and vice president of the Student Fashion Association. She also works at the Full Circle Project on campus serving APIDA students. Despite the demands of her multifaceted engagements, Rasanjeet consistently maintains an impressive GPA, underscoring her steadfast commitment to academic excellence amidst her dynamic involvement in extracurricular endeavors. She is one of the two recipients of the Apparel Marketing and Design Scholarship this year.

and
later
navigates
languages.
propelling
actively esteemed