Program Detail

Cognitive Function in Aging: Healthy Brain vs. Mild Cognitive Impairment and Dementia

Dr. Chen will compare healthy brain aging to mild cognitive impairment and dementia. She will explain ways to maintain cognitive function in aging, what is normal and abnormal brain function, and when to seek care. Dr. Chen leads the clinical drug trials unit at UC Davis Health's Alzheimer's Disease Center. She has an interest in both disease-modifying therapies and symptomatic therapies for Alzheimer's disease and related dementias. She is also interested in understanding ways to increase the accessibility and inclusion of participants from underrepresented groups in clinical trials. Dr. Chen received her undergraduate degree at UC Berkeley and her neurology residency at UC Davis.

SacLink accounts for Zoom & Classroom Tech

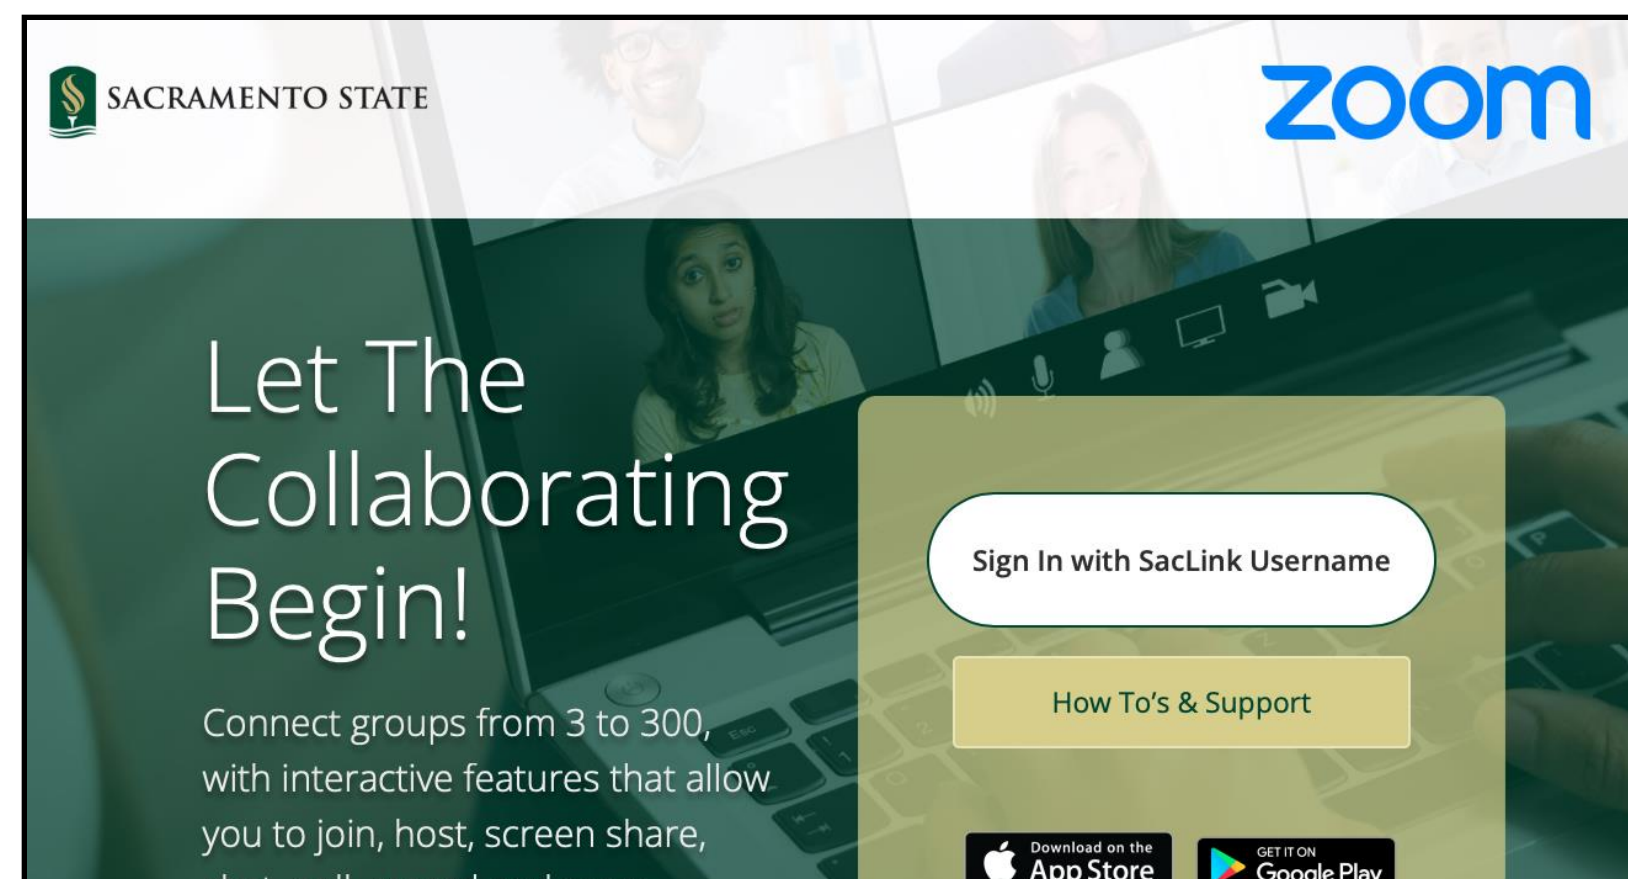

- All leaders using Zoom should have an account for this semester
- We manage the Ren-XX accounts only, not other CSUS accounts (e.g. Not jane.smith@csus.edu)
- Contact us if you need an account for in-person to use classroom equipment
- Don't change your password
- University's security policy requires passwords be changed every 365 days
- We change the passwords for the Zoom accounts at the beginning of summer

Reminder: January Tech Training

Hello program leaders and tech hosts

Happy New Year and Happy New Semester. To help you prepare for your classes, we have lined up the following training sessions. Read about the audience and description to see what applies to you.

Tech Update Workshop

Wed. Jan 22, 10:00 - 11:30am (on Zoom)
Audience: Program leaders and tech hosts

Each semester the Technology Committee conducts a tech session to keep you up-to-date on the latest changes in our Renaissance Society's two technical systems: Program Registration System and using Zoom. We also cover a few topics we haven't talked about for a while. We're planning a Back to Basics segment to review some things you may not have used for a while. You can sign up now.

Technology Training for Teaching On Campus

Fri. Jan 24, 9:00am - Noon (Room ARC3006 in the Academic Resources Center at Sac State)
Audience: Those teaching on campus on Fridays and using the classroom equipment

Who is the Renaissance Society?
Learn. Connect. Share.

The Renaissance Society of Sacramento provides opportunities for participatory lifelong learning and community engagement for older adults. Our learning opportunities include programs on widely varied subjects, from serious to amusing, proposed and presented by our members.

We also are involved with Sac State to help with more learning opportunities, such as providing scholarships, donating to the ASI Food Pantry, or volunteering for many Sac State departments.

We have a wide variety of programs, five days a week. During the Fall 2024 semester, we are offering programs on Zoom Mondays through Thursdays. Other programs are on the Sac State campus on Fridays; some are in-person only, while others are a combination of in-person and Zoom.
