About a dozen retired faculty members expressed interest in response to our survey this summer. For information on this program, contact Van Aikman (278-7362).

New Emeritus Faculty Room in Library

A disadvantage of the present room is that it is closed evenings, weekends, and summers. The new room will be 50% larger and will be available all the hours the library is open. An Open House will be announced when the room is available, probably in November.
