

Outstanding Mentoring

Hei Fok, the PRIDE Center

Hei Fok, as the Pride Center Coordinator, has made a lasting impact on both employees and the broader queer community. His kindness and willingness to help create a safe, supportive environment where staff and visitors feel valued. Hei's commitment goes beyond his role; he's always ready to step in and sacrifice his time to ensure the Center meets the needs of those it serves. His genuine passion for uplifting the LGBTQ+ community shines through in his actions, from fostering inclusive programs to advocating for individual well-being, making the Pride Center a true home for all.

Outstanding Mentoring Nominees

Mia Anghel, Student Affairs Business Resources

Rand Doering, Academic Advising Center

Joe Loera, University Housing Services